

Meditation #8

Fill It Up

Experiencing the Fullness of God in Every Way!

All Shook Up!

“And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come:
and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts ”

Haggai 2:7

Spiritual leadership is much about discerning, interpreting, and embodying the presence and activity of God among the people of God. The prophetic office, such as that which Haggai served, was central to giving the people of God clarity concerning God’s intentions and plans for them. Self-abased and God-immersed, Haggai’s lips moved but it was God who spoke. God spoke in the midst of their hard labor, their toil, and their trauma which was left over from the pain of their past.

To those who had held on, who had not fainted, who refused to die, who dared not give up, who stood when others couldn’t or wouldn’t, God spoke! His message?
“I’m about to fill it up, but before I do, I’m going to shake it up!”

Strange as it may seem, God does sometimes have a “most wanted list”. The list is comprised of those whom, according to God’s wisdom, are prime targets for whatever “right now” work He is performing. These people are the holdouts. They are those who refused to sell-out when the going got hard, and thus they stood out on God’s radar, so that when the season came for God to reward faithfulness among His people, they were there! Hallelujah! If you’re reading this meditation it means you’re still holding on so you should shout right now because that means you’re on the list!

His blessing for them was what God Himself called a ‘shaking’, the mark of His entry into their situation to validate His presence, vindicate their work, and revitalize their spirit. In this season God is rewarding those who have determined to be the faithful, filling us with all the fullness He has for us in every way. He is right now validating His presence. He’s proving to someone right now that He really is with you! He is right now vindicating your work, showing somebody that He is working and living through you! He is right now revitalizing your spirit, giving you what you need and more to be a mighty instrument of His glory! Next time somebody asks you how you’re doing; tell them, “I’m all shook up!”

Pray this:

Lord today, thank you for the grace to have remained faithful to you. Shake me Lord. Fill me Lord. Bless me Lord with all the fullness you have for me!
