

Morning Glory!

Oh God, thou art my God;
Early will I seek thee:
My soul thirsteth for thee

Psalm 63:1

The Marks of Christ-Centered Achievement: Keeping Your Eyes on the Prize #4 A HELPING HAND!

“...but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,
I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:13-14

The mark of Sobriety ensures divine influence, gives you a certainty of mind, and protects you from making bad choices. Yet, even the most tough-minded of individuals can find themselves short-handed, in need of a little help along the way. Christ-centered achievement is not a solo affair. None of us is so talented, so resourceful, so wise, so energetic, so experienced that we are exempt from needing others. The great achievers in Christ have testimonies of those who stepped into their journeys to make a difference and sometimes the difference. While there are no limits to what God can do, there are limits to what we can do. In fact, there are God-ordained limitations for each one of us.

Are you encountering a stage in the journey where it is obvious that you cannot be successful without help? Don't worry. God's always got somebody who's ready and willing to give what you don't have, share what you don't know, envision what you can't see, and even believe in you when you are tempted to doubt your own dreams and capabilities.

For every Joshua, there is a Moses. For every Elisha, there is an Elijah. For every David, there is a Samuel. For every Ruth, there is a Naomi. For every Timothy, there is a Paul. Know that God has assigned someone to your situation whose gifts or resources or encouragements are tailor-made just for your condition.

Today amid any limitation of resources or courage or faith,
I challenge you to trust the God in someone else to come through for you.
Christ-centered achievement is a team-effort, where God teaches us to humble ourselves. In this he prepares us for our elevation.

Pray this:

Lord of glory, I receive the helping hand you have assigned for me today.
I expect that you will come through for me.
